Notice of Rights

Document No. DGR – 2a

Effective: June 29, 2005

If you received an adverse Compliance Recommendation recommending denial, suspension or revocation of a license, you may:

1. Contest the Compliance Recommendation before the Gaming Regulatory Board (or a Hearing Examiner appointed by the Board) at the Determination Hearing to be held on the date, and at the time and location noted on your Compliance Recommendation.

OR

2. Appeal the Compliance Recommendation within 20 days after the issuance of the Compliance Recommendation directly to the Court of Central Jurisdiction.
  - A. If you elect to appeal the Compliance Recommendation directly to the Court of Central Jurisdiction you must notify the Board of your intent to appeal, in writing at least one business day before the Determination Hearing (see date on Compliance Recommendation). The notice of your intent to appeal must be delivered to a Board member, the Director or designee no later than the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the date of the Determination Hearing.
  - B. If you elect to appeal the Compliance Recommendation directly to the Court of Central Jurisdiction you will have waived the right to receive a Compliance Determination from the Board, and no Compliance Determination will be issued by the Board.
  - C. The Director will provide you with copies of the information relied upon in issuing the Compliance Recommendation within two days of receipt of your notice of intent to appeal directly to the Court of Central Jurisdiction.

If you received an adverse Compliance Recommendation recommending action OTHER THAN the denial, suspension or revocation of a license, you may:

3. Contest the Compliance Recommendation before the Gaming Regulatory Board (or a Hearing Examiner appointed by the Board) at the Determination Hearing to be held on the date, and at the time and location noted on your Compliance Recommendation.

Contesting an adverse Compliance Recommendation before the Gaming Regulatory Board (or a Hearing Examiner appointed by the Board):

1. You may review and/or request a copy of the information relied upon in issuing the Compliance Recommendation from the Director (at a cost of .25 cents per page).
2. You have the right to appear before the Board, or a Hearing Examiner appointed by the Board, during the Determination Hearing.
3. You have the right to have counsel represent you at your own expense.
4. You may supplement the record and offer relevant evidence to the Board or Hearing Examiner at the Determination Hearing.
5. Enclosed with this Notice of Rights is a copy of the Board Hearing Procedures that will be followed during the Determination Hearing.
